

Managed Resources are resources whose life Terraform manages completely, from initial creation, through updates, and final deletion.

More Managed Resources

Data Sources are special kinds of resources which are unmanaged by Terraform. Terraform can query these resources for data, but does not directly own them.